

---

A Benefit for the NATIVE HAWAIIAN LEGAL CORPORATION

---

Featuring the Hawai'i Premiere of

MURUNDAK

SONGS OF FREEDOM

A film that journeys into the heart of Aboriginal protest music following the Black Arm band.

Heart wrenching and inspirational.

&

Fishing Pono:

Living in Harmony with the Sea

This film tells the story of Native Hawaiians who live off the sea.

A co-production of the Corporation For Public Broadcasting, Honolulu based Pacific Islanders In Communication, and Kaua'i attorney Teresa Tico

---

Saturday, November 24, 2012 5:00 to 9:30 p.m. Mamiya Theater
St. Louis School/Chaminade University 3142 Waiālae Avenue Honolulu

---

$75—General Admission or $25—Student Admission.
Includes pupus, live music & Silent Auction. Drinks will be available for purchase.

Go to www.nhlchi.org or call (808) 521-2302 to purchase your admission.

All proceeds benefit the NATIVE HAWAIIAN LEGAL CORPORATION a 501(c)3 entity.
Donations are appreciated and are tax-deductible as permitted by law. MAHALO