

Talk Story with:

Professor Eric K. Yamamoto

Fred T. Korematsu Professor Law and Social Justice at the William S. Richardson School of Law, University of Hawai'i

June 28, 2018

5:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

King Kamehameha V Judiciary History Center
417 S. King Street, Honolulu, HI 96813

Eric K. Yamamoto

In the Shadow of *Korematsu

Democratic Liberties and National Security

OXFORD

Professor Yamamoto will address the present-day significance of an independent judiciary viewed through the lens of the WWII Japanese American incarceration cases. Interactive discussion topics may include the Japanese American Citizens League-Honolulu's Supreme Court amicus brief in the pending Hawai'i challenge to the "travel ban" executive order.

*Reception and book signing to follow
(books will be available for purchase at a discount)*

Sponsored by the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association
Hawaii Chapter, Japanese American Citizens League-Honolulu, and the Federal Bar Association Hawaii Chapter